

HAD A BAD OFF DAY.

The Local Ball Team Played
Worse Than Amateurs
Yesterday.

CLARKSBURG TOOK THE GAME

Without Half Trying—Lower Pitched Fine Ball for the Visitors While Malarkey's Pitchers Were Hit Hard and Errors Helped Many Runs In.

It was awful! Connelville gave the worst exhibition of baseball yesterday that has been seen on the local grounds for many a day. Some of the old timers can't remember a worse one. And just paid off at that. Well, there are other days and possibly this team will take a brace. But they were way off, and that's no pipe dream. The team seemed to fall to pieces before it began playing. Ono Romeo Parsons, captain of the aggregation and star leftfielder, was the worst of the lot. Romeo was way off color. The redeeming feature of his playing was a couple of pretty hits. He got two pretty flies, but had three errors. And had ones. The odor of them was noticeable all the way to the grandstand. Hart also had a bad error, dropping a pretty throw to first, as did Werner, who helped lose his own game by making two very wild throws. Amshy was the other offender, but he held off until the others had performed and then, after playing a star game at short, made three fumbles, all in the seventh inning. There isn't much use going into details. Warner, the new southpaw, started to pitch. Three runs were scored off his delivery in the first and in the second with three men on bases and one man out. Gaiser was sent to the mound. Helne pulled himself out of a bad hole, no runs being scored, but up to the seventh inning the visitors got five runs. This was principally due to loose fielding, Parsons dropping an easy fly and other miscues. They made eight hits off the Dutchman. Tucker then went to the hill, but Clarksburg had quit trying to bat and only tallied two more runs. Four hits were made off Tucker. Lower had Connelville at his mercy until the eighth. In this inning and the ninth Connelville managed to get four runs over the plate. Following is the score:

Notes of the Game.
Wow.
Ginger.
Win today.
Thins, you can do it.
And there was a good crowd.
No knock is intended, boys, but we don't propose to sit around and see such an exhibition as yesterday without entering an earnest protest.
Warner had little speed and was fearfully wild.
Clarksburg did some stupid base running. Twenty instead of ten runs should have been scored on the kind of playing Connelville put up.
A ball player only has to work about two hours a day, and he ought to keep himself in condition to give the public and the team's backers a little run for their money.
Hard luck to take Fairmont into camp on bad days and then play like amateurs the first time a fair sized crowd gets out.
Mighty cheerful to sit around the grandstand and see the Connelville custoffs fielding like veterans and batting a streak. McIntyre, who covered short for Clarksburg, and got four hits, warmed the bench for Malarkey several days without getting a trial. Essler was captain of the team, but they discarded him, and now he has pulled Clarksburg out of an almost hopelessly lost position. Yarger, who is one of the best hitters Cumberland has, was released from Connelville without getting a trial, while Outfielder Danny Whalen, formerly located here, was also turned off. Feaske, Cumberland's best pitcher, volunteered to sign with Connelville, but Malarkey didn't get him transportation in time. Malarkey also claimed Ellum, whom he let go to Latrobe, but he is now with Cumberland, and playing great ball.
Warner fielded his position fearfully weak. Two of his throws were way wild.
Tiffany played a great fielding game at first. He and Moran never "lay down." However, Tiffany has had an awful batting slump and it seems impossible for him to land the ball safe. Francis is batting well. He is one of the best emergency hitters on the team.

Persons fanned twice. He swatted at several wild ones a 10-foot bat wouldn't have reached.

Pat Moran is a hard working, conscientious player. He has caught 28 straight league games, all that have been played by Connelville, and five exhibition games before the season opened. If all the players on the local nine would play with the same spirit that Pat always does there would be more victories.

What Parsons said about himself when he dropped those fly balls would not look well in print.

It was sweet revenge for Elmer Essler. By the way that boy has some ball brains that the Connelville fans didn't appreciate when he was a member of the local nine.

Parson's swat in the ninth would have been good for three bases had not a small boy in left fielded the ball to the left gardner for Clarksburg. The cop out that way was asleep at the switch when he permitted the kids to romp around in left field for several innings. So was Umpire Wilho.

Thank heaven, John Lower will not be on the firing line today.

Helne Gaiser's arm was sore which accounts for his wildness.

Miss Anna Lower, a sister to Pitcher John Lower, enjoyed the game from the grand stand. Miss Lower, whose home is in Gettysburg, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Bell of Dawson. Cumberland has one satisfaction: Clarksburg took a full out of Connelville.

The race is bunched closer than ever now. Beaver Falls defeated Greensburg, Butler put it over Scottdale and Cumberland, to the surprise of all concerned, trounced the Fairmont leaders. It looks like Butler for first place again.

That was an awful jolt for Uniontown. Zanesville applied the kalsolme to Pearson's pets.

Amshy made a pretty stop back of second base again. He ran over in Hart's territory and retched the runner at first.

SCOTSDALE'S FOURTH

Enthusiastic Meeting Held to Plan for Observance of Liberty Day.

MONSTER PARADE IS PLANNED.

Committee Appointed Wednesday Evening to Consult With Business Men Who Are Going to Take Part—Scottsdale is Lively.

SCOTSDALE, June 6.—The Fire Department and citizens had an enthusiastic meeting at the borough building on Thursday evening to start the ball rolling for the big celebration that the firemen have framed up to mark the Fourth of July in Scottsdale. There was unabated enthusiasm displayed in the matter, and every prospect is for a celebration that will go far ahead of any of the famous ones that Scottsdale has had in the past. There has not been a big day here for some time and the people are in fine fettle for it.

The meeting was called to order by W. N. Porter and Councilman Herman G. Matz of the First Ward was elected Chairman, with C. S. Shupe and A. L. Porter Secretaries. There were several spirited speeches made reporting progress in the arrangements, and also great headway being made in the plans for the week of the Fourth, when the firemen will have an entertainment that will last a week. Several attractions have already been secured that assures the success of the plan, and that will make it a great drawing card for the lovers of amusement in all the surrounding towns.

The Chairman appointed W. N. Porter, Isaac Robinson, David Griffith, Frank Wise and O. S. Weaver a committee to see the business men and find out what ones will take part in the parade on the Fourth. Several have already signified their intention of rigging up floats for the day. It will add to the interest of the parade and the business men are not insensible to the advertising to be had on that day. There will be a keen rivalry in this to show the finest float. Dad Jarrett will be asked to join the parade with his wagon team, as will other haulers in town. Mr. Jarrett is the dean of the wagon drivers in Scottsdale, and always has a satiny coated pair of horses out in a parade. The many automobilists of town will appear in the autos. The beauty of some of those in the Connelville Centennial celebration has stirred Scottsdale motorists to show what they can do. An effort will be made to have the Frick people and the Union Supply Company take part, with their big teams. They have always been an attractive feature of all the big parades in the region.

Another attraction mentioned was the famous Craft band, the ancient martial organization formed in 1874, and which has been engaged for the military display of the Tenth Regiment soon to be held in Mt. Pleasant. The Scottsdale Firemen's Day to be held at Shady Grove park on Saturday came in for discussion. That it will be a large outing is certain. One of the features will be a dress parade on the evening of the park, and Scottsdale in their many uniforms presents a fine appearance. There is great enthusiasm taken in the company, and it only needs that the details of the plan and what is expected to be put before the people to insure their cooperation. Scottsdale has had some famous days in the past and will have this year. The meeting adjourned to meet in one week.

SHIELDS WINS

Had 586 Over Steele for Sheriff in Westmoreland County—Hitchman Wins for Controller.

Special to The Courier. GREENSBURG, June 7.—Shields for Sheriff by a lead of 586. Hitchman for Controller by 2,903 and Miller for Register by 2,394 is the result of the official returns unofficially added. There may be some slight changes when the official returns are given out, but not enough to alter the general result. Under Commissioners Shaffer, Reamer and Shupe the official count was started Tuesday.

All but the vote of Four Director had been counted when adjournment was taken. Many rumors concerning the success of Steele for Sheriff were set at naught by the count last night. Hitchman and Miller both had more votes than all their opponents combined. Hitchman won out over a trio, while Miller beat a pair. Election judges all over the county are well pleased with the first trial of the Uniform Primaries.

DR. J. B. SHUPE DEAD.

Was a Brother of Dr. M. B. Shupe of Connelville.

Dr. J. B. Shupe, one of the most prominent physicians in Allegheny county, Md., died late Wednesday afternoon at his home at Westernport, Md. His death was due to heart failure. He had been ill in bed nearly a week and his death was very unexpected and was a great shock to the community, where Dr. Shupe was such an honored citizen and physician. Aside from being one of the leading physicians of the county he conducted the principal drug store at Westernport, where he had been located for the past 15 years or more. He was 56 years of age at the time of his death. He leaves a wife, two sons, Messrs. Frank and Brady, of Westernport; and the following brothers and sisters: Dr. M. B. Shupe, Connelville, Pa.; John Shupe, Cashier Pullman Palace Car Company, Pittsburg; William, Charles and Clark Shupe, Scottsdale; Mrs. Bowen, Coshocton, O. He was a member of the Elks of Frostburg.

The deceased enjoyed a large practice, both on the Maryland and West Virginia sides of the river. The funeral will likely take place at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon from the Episcopal Church at Westernport.

SERENADERS

Have Formed Union and a Tin Pan Orchestra on the Pinnacle for Brides and Grooms.

A union has been formed on the Pinnacle by the effervescent small boys of that neighborhood for the especial purpose of making life miserable for brides and grooms. Marri-mongal business on the hill has been on the rise lately and the youngsters figure that they can come out well in their new ventures.

They have formed a tin pan orchestra and serenade the young couple the day of the ceremony. Under the rules of the organization the participants are not allowed to dole out until the groom hands them a dollar or more or the police appear.

Several weeks ago they tried it for the first time and demanded $4, but the groom was stingy and they didn't get a cent. Business was booming yesterday and two serenades were held. At one place a dollar was collected, but the nothing doing sign was out at the other. Of the dollar, three of the largest boys got a quarter each, while the other participants divided the remaining quarter, the per capita share being 2 cents each.

JUMPED BAIL.

Connellsville Man Leaves Youngwood Woman Who Befriended Him in the Lurch for $600.

GREENSBURG, June 6.—Mrs. Sublimoy of Youngwood, who was in the limelight some months ago because her husband tried to kill her and then committed suicide, is again in the public eye. This time she is the victim of mistaken friendship. W. M. Burkett, or John Elkins, a young friend of hers, was arrested for larceny in New Castle, and she put up $600 cash bail for him. The case comes up for trial next week and Elkins is missing. The Perkins Detective Agency has been hired to locate him, and local officers are working on the case. Mrs. Sublimoy came into a considerable amount of insurance when her husband died.

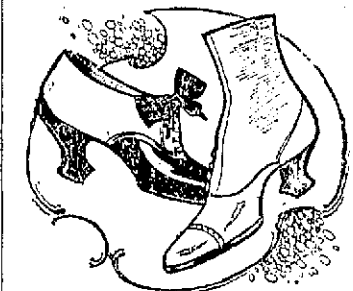

Charles Bridges and Alfred West, B. & O. trainmen of Connelville, were indicted yesterday at New Castle by the Grand Jury for larceny in the same case. They are alleged to have taken a box of tailoring goods from a freight car.
